FAMILY Resource Guide

A guide to Randolph County services and support for young children and their families.

RANDOLPH PARTNERSHIP FOR CHILDREN :

- Provides funding and support to programs specially selected to meet the Partnership's early education, health, and family support goals for young children and families.
- Is a catalyst for bringing together diverse interests to help develop solutions.
- Brings together business, religious, community leaders, parents, teachers, and human service providers dedicated to improving the lives of our county's young children.

To learn more about the Randolph Partnership for Children, call our office at 336-629-2128 or visit our website at: RandolphKids.org

SMART START

- Is a comprehensive public-private initiative launched in 1993 to ensure all children enter school healthy and ready to succeed.
- Helps young children and families by bringing together and strengthening existing resources.

With Smart Start:

- Children are better prepared for school;
- Child care quality has improved;
- Early educators are better educated;
- Early educator turnover has been reduced;
- Children are healthier;
- Parents are better informed and have more resources;
- Communities are involved in planning and advocating for the needs of their children.

Agencies funded by Randolph Partnership for Children with Smart Start funds are identified.

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

- Using the Table of Contents, find the section heading that contains the information you need.
- Bilingual materials and interpreters. Some programs offer applications, brochures, or other written materials in Spanish. In some cases, an interpreter can be contacted for assistance. Programs that offer someone on staff who speaks Spanish or provide bilingual materials are noted.
- Once you find the information that you need, call the listed phone number, or visit the office of the organization at the address that is provided.
- You can also search organizations and service providers listed in this guide on our website using the online searchable Family Resource Guide.

STEPS TO FOLLOW IN A MEDICAL EMERGENCY

- 1 When an emergency occurs, one person should provide assistance while another calls for help.
- 2 Dial 911. Give the dispatcher the required information using steps 3, 4, and 5 for guidance.
- 3 Give the location of the emergency. Include the cross streets, the room number, and the telephone number you are calling from.
- 4 Describe what happened. For example: an automobile crash, a sudden illness, etc. Tell the dispatcher what appears to be wrong. For example: the victim is bleeding, or unconscious, etc.
- 5 Inform the dispatcher if any first aid has, or is, being given. Inform them of what first aid it is.
- 6 Do not hang up until the dispatcher hangs up. The dispatcher may tell you how to care for the victim. Help care for the victim until medical assistance arrives.

Everyone should know what to do in an emergency. Call your local American Red Cross at 336-629-2399 for information about CPR and first-aid courses. Program offers resource materials in Spanish.

STEPS TO FOLLOW IF A PERSON IS MISSING

1. CALL 911. You will be connected with your local law enforcement agency. Be sure to provide the person's name, date of birth, height, weight, and any other unique identifiers such as eyeglasses and braces. Tell them when you noticed that the person was missing and what clothing he or she was wearing. Be sure to obtain a case number and name of the person in charge of your case from the police. Program offers resource materials in Spanish and has Spanish speaking personnel.
2. Request that the person's name and identifying information be immediately entered into the NATIONAL CRIME INFORMATION CENTER (NCIC) MISSING PERSON FILE by law enforcement.
3. If a child is missing, call the NATIONAL CENTER FOR MISSING & EXPLOITED CHILDREN at 1-800-THE-LOST (1-800-843-5678) to get information on searching for your child, law enforcement, and family advocacy. Or visit the website at www.missingkids.com
4. If an adult is missing, file a report with the NORTH CAROLINA CENTER FOR THE MISSING PERSONS at 910-343-1131 and keep track of the case number. www.ncmissingpersons.org
