TJX Foundation awards grant to Randolph Partnership for Children

ASHEBORO, N.C. (February 3, 2021) — Executive Director Lisa Hayworth announced Randolph Partnership for Children (RPC) received a check for $1000 on January 27 following notification the nonprofit is the recipient of a TJX Foundation grant.

The check is earmarked to support RPC's Promoting Racial Equity in Early Care & Education initiative. The grant was awarded on behalf of TJX Foundation's Corporate Associate Nominated Grants Program.

"We are so grateful for these funds, which will help us in our efforts to create safe environments for early care and education professionals to explore implicit bias and racism in child care and preschool settings," Lisa said. "By creating communities of practice through which we can provide support and resources, we will work to remove barriers created by bias and racism to ensure all children in Randolph County get the best, most equitable foundation needed for success in school and life."

The Community Mission of the TJX Foundation is to provide value to its communities by helping vulnerable families and children access the resources and opportunities they need to build a better future.

The TJX Companies, Inc., is a leading off-price apparel and home fashions retailer in the U.S. and worldwide. It operates T.J. Maxx and Marshalls, HomeGoods, Sierra, and Homesense.
